

Schedules and standings printing out too small? Follow these instructions:

Internet Explorer

- Unhide the Menu Bar by right-clicking above the top page tabs and ensure “Menu bar” is checked (you can hide it again later by using the same steps, only unchecking the item)
- Click on “File” and in the dropdown menu click on “Page setup...” and ensure “Enable Shrink-to-Fit” is unchecked and press “OK”

Mozilla Firefox

- Unhide the Menu Bar by right-clicking on the top toolbar (next to the page tabs) and ensure “Menu Bar” is checked (you can hide it again later by using the same steps, only unchecking the item)
- Click on “File” and in the dropdown menu click on “Page setup...” and ensure “Shrink to fit Page Width” is unchecked and press “OK”

Safari, Google Chrome

- There are no “shrink-to-fit” options, therefore there are no ways to increase font sizes when printing

If you regularly print web pages, you'll probably want to re-enable the shrink-to-fit setting after you're done, or those web pages will likely get cropped off in print.
